INTRODUCTION.

One of the writer's early boyhood recollections is of the deep respect and veneration which his mother and her sisters always held for their grandmother, Patience Gleason.

In later years, when genealogical research became an interesting recreation and a means of relief from business cares, the Gleason line of ancestry naturally claimed attention. But before the investigation had progressed to any considerable extent, it developed, through correspondence that other members of the family were at work in this field and that a great deal of valuable genealogical and historical matter had been collected.

The late Daniel A. Gleason of Boston and the late Joseph Meade Gleason of Cincinnati, working together, had made one collection of records and Mr. Albert H. Gleason of Chicago, working practically alone for nearly 13 years, had made another large collection, which also included some records prepared by Mrs. Jane H. Gleason of Cassopolis, Mich.

Before any definite steps were taken towards the publishing of any of these records, Messrs. Daniel A. Gleason and Joseph Meade Gleason both died. Feeling that the work already done ought to be preserved to future generations, the writer proposed to undertake the publishing of a Gleason Genealogy to be compiled from his own and the other collections of records referred to.

This proposition met with the hearty approval of Mr. Albert H. Gleason of Chicago and of Lieut. Howard S. Gleason of Louisville, Ky., who had charge of the collection made by his father and Mr. Daniel A. Gleason, and all these collections were accordingly sent to the writer.

These records, however, were simply in the form of genealogical notes, and a great amount of labor was required in order to combine and prepare them for publication. Miss Lillian May Wilson was engaged to do this work and to add to it, such data as could be readily obtained from the writer's library and from other sources, but not to delay the work for any extended correspondence or research.

Acting under these instructions, Miss Wilson has completed her task, and the result is here presented, with the hope that it will find favor with the many scattered kinsmen, who through its medium, may come to know more of each other.

EDITOR'S PREFACE

The records of the Gleason family in the male line, contained in this volume, were compiled almost entirely from notes prepared by Albert H. Gleason of Chicago, and by the late Joseph Meade Gleason of Cincinnati, both of whom acknowledged the valuable assistance of the late Daniel A. Gleason of Boston.

Such records of the descendants of the daughters of the Gleason families as appear in this volume, were compiled and inserted by the editor, and these have been obtained from the various town records and from the following sources :

Stiles' "Ancient Windsor."

Temple's "History of Framingham, with Genealogies."

Fisk Genealogy by Frederick Clifton Fisk.

Fairbanks Genealogy by Lorenzo Sayles Fairbanks.

Doggett-Daggett Genealogy by Samuel Bradlee Daggett.

Root Genealogy by James Pierce Root.

The records of the descendants of Rufus Gleason (No. 1208) were compiled from the little volume published by Mrs. Miriam Gleason Truesdell, of Ashville, Chautauqua Co., N. Y. (1900). On the closing pages of this volume will be found a record of the descendants of Daniel Gleason of Genesee, N. Y., which was compiled from notes furnished by Mrs. Jane H. Gleason of Cassopolis, Mich.

GLEASON.

The name, which in this volume will invariably be spelled Gleason, is found in different localities, in various forms.

In the very early records it is frequently spelled Leson, or Leeson; later it appears with some 30 variations in spelling, such as Gleizen, Glezen, Gleeson, Gleazen, Glysson, Gleazon, Gleison, Gleyson, Leason, Leison, Lesen, Eison, Eason, etc.; but the late Joseph Meade Gleason, in his notes, states that all those in this country of early date, bearing this name, of whatever method of spelling "are descendants of Thomas Gleason, of Watertown, Mass., as we have fortunately been able to determine by the public records of the New England states." The Emigrant Thomas, himself spelled his own name in several different ways.

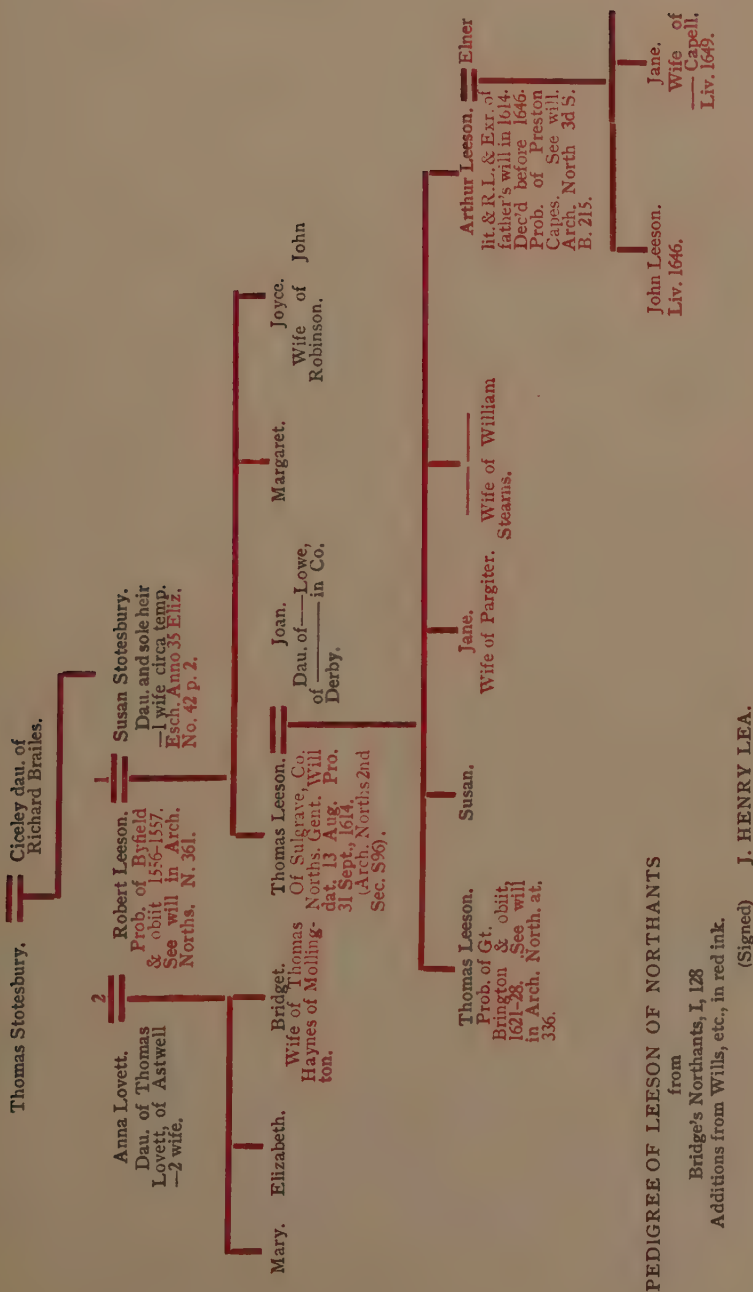

The first mention of the name in America is found in the records of Watertown, Mass., where one Thomas Gleason took oath of allegiance, June 1st, 1652.

Of the parentage and birthplace of this Thomas Gleason no positive knowledge has been obtained. Mr. J. Henry Lea, at the request of the late Daniel A. Gleason of West Medford, Mass., and of the late Joseph Meade Gleason, of Cincinnati, Ohio, made a somewhat extended search of the wills in the Archdeaconry of Northampton, the Archdeaconry of Northants, the Consistory of Lichfield and the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, but with no satisfactory results.

In the English records, the name is invariably spelled without the "G", and appears, generally as Leeson, and a rather numerous family of that name lived in Northampton County, England. This, coupled with the fact that, in the earliest records in this country, those of Watertown and Cambridge, Mass., the name appears as Leson and Leason, respectively, affords grounds for the belief that Thomas of Watertown was a descendant of the Leeson of Northampton County; and this belief is further strengthened by the similarity of Christian names, used by the Northampton County family and those appearing in the early generations of the American family.

In his report, Mr. Lea quotes from Bridges "Northants", a pedigree of the Leeson of that place, which he has supplemented with information obtained from various Wills, and which is as follows :

It is not improbable that Thomas of Watertown, Mass., was the son of Thomas of Brington, and grandson of Thomas of Sulgrave, a copy of whose Will, furnished by Mr. Lea, is as follows :

Proved 31st day of September 1614.

It is to be regretted that Thomas of Sulgrave, in his will, made no mention of his grandchildren. Had he done so, the present problem would, no doubt, be easy of solution.

It is also much to be regretted that the Registers of Sulgrave prior to 1668, have been destroyed. Those of Brington, from 1558, and of Abthorpe, from 1583, and also some others in the County of Northampton, still exist. A careful search of these Registers might throw some light on this subject.

The limited time allowed for the completion of the present work has not permitted any further search of the English records, but for the assistance of those who may, at some future time, undertake to complete this record, the following details from Mr. Lea's report, are here inserted.

FIRST GENERATION

1. THOMAS GLEASON was born probably in Sulgrave, Northampton County, England, in 1607; died in Cambridge, Mass., in 1686; married in England, Susanna Page, who died in Boston, Mass. Jan. 24, 1691.

CHILDREN :

- +2. I. THOMAS, b. prob. in Eng. 1637; m. 1st Sarah —; m. 2nd Mary —.
- +3. II. JOSEPH, b. Watertown, Mass. 1642; m. 1st, Martha Russell; m. 2nd Abigail Garfield.
- +4. III. JOHN, b. Watertown, Mass. 1647; m. Mary Ross.
- 5. IV. PHILIP, b. Watertown, Mass. 1649-51; d. Framingham, Mass. about 1690; was a soldier in King Philip's War, 1676; Capt. Jos. Syll's Co.
- 6. V. NATHANIEL, b. 1651; d. Apr. 21, 1676; was killed on the night of Apr. 21, 1676 in the Sudbury Fight with King Philip's warriors, in which the brave Col. Wadsworth and his men, perhaps 50 or 60 in number, were ambushed and most of them slaughtered.
- +7. VI. ISAAC, b. Watertown, Mass. 1654; m. Hester Eggleston.
- +8. VII. WILLIAM, b. Cambridge, Mass. 1655; m. Abiah or Abiel Bartlett.
- 9. VIII. MARY, b. Cambridge, Mass. Oct. 31, 1657.
- 10. IX. ANN, b. Charlestown, Mass. 1659; d. Arlington, Mass. (?) 1741.

The early records contain no entries of consequence regarding Thomas Gleason, and from the little that can be gathered from this source, it would seem that he was of a somewhat arbitrary disposition, which not infrequently got him into trouble with the town authorities on minor matters of conduct.

In 1658 Thomas Gleason removed to Charlestown, and on Dec. 3, he leased from Capt. Scarlett, a portion of the Squa Sachem lands.

In 1639 Squa Sachem had deeded to the town of Charlestown, her lands lying in what is now Medford, reserving to herself certain tracts on the west side of Mysticke Pond. By her will, she bequeathed all her property to certain prominent citizens, among whom were Gov. John Winthrop and Edward Gibbons. The latter secured possession of the lands on the west side of Mysticke Pond, and this was the land subsequently leased to Thomas Gleason.

Soon after this lease was made a question arose as to the rightful ownership of these lands, and in March 1662, the town of Charlestown instituted a suit against Thomas Gleason, for the purpose of obtaining possession. All of Thomas Gleason's resources were swallowed up in the litigation, and the case was unsettled when he died in the spring of 1686.

SECOND GENERATION

2. THOMAS GLEASON,<sup>2</sup> (Thomas,<sup>1</sup>) b. probably in England in 1737; d. Framingham, Mass., July 25th, 1705; m. Sarah —, who died in Framingham, Mass., July 8th, 1703. He m. second Mary —.

Thomas settled in Sudbury, Mass., in 1665, on the east side of Cochituate Pond, or Long Pond, as it was uniformly called in the early records. This pond lies partly in Natick, partly in Sudbury, and partly in Framingham. Sept. 29, 1673 he bought by exchange from Benjamin and Mary Rice the northerly one half of eighty acres, which lay between Beaver Dam Brook, Gleason's Pond and Gleason's Hill in Framingham. Gleason's Pond, as it is still called, covers about 13 acres. It was named for Thomas Gleason, and for four generations his descendants lived upon its borders. Thomas' own home was built near it in 1678. Oct 5th, 1678 he was received as an inhabitant in the town of Sherborn, where he enjoyed civil and religious privileges, his estate being taxable there up to 1700.

Thomas was a signer of a petition March 3rd, 1692, to the General Court at Boston to purchase adjacent land from the Indians in Natick Bounds for the incorporation of Framingham. The name of his son Thomas Jr. appears on the same petition.

The location of Thomas Gleason's farm near Sudbury is sometimes described as being in Natick's Bounds in the town of Sherborn, but between the years 1667 and 1710 it was recognized as a part of Framingham.

The early records show a number of land transfers made by Thomas Gleason.

His Will, proven Sept. 10, 1705, is as follows:

WILL OF THOMAS GLEASON:

In the name of God Amen—the Thirtieth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord God One Thousand seven hundred and five, I, Thomas Gleason of Sherborn in the County of Middlesex, in the Province of Massachusetts Bay, in New England (Husbandman) being sick and broak of body, but composed mentally, of disposing mind and memory, Thanks be given unto God therefore, Calling unto mind the mortality of my Body and knowing that it is appointed for all men Once to Dye, Do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament ; That is to say, principally and first of all, I Give and recommend my Soul into the hands of God that Gave it: and for my Body I recommend it to the Earth, to be buried in a Christian like and decent manner—nothing doubting, but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly Estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this Life, I Give, Divide and Dispose of the same in the manner and form following:

ITEM. I give and bequeath to my well beloved son Thomas Gleason and to his assigns three acres of land lying in the township of Sherborn, it being a town right which fell to me in the divided land Lying adjoining to John Eames Land ; which is all that I bequeath unto him, the said Thomas Gleason, by reason of the lands he lives on which I formerly passed a deed unto him of.

ITEM. I give and bequeath to my well beloved daughters Patience Gleason and Mary Gleason and to their assigns, all my household goods and household moveables, to be equally divided between them, also to them I bequeath the use and improvement of one of the rooms in my now dwelling house until they shall be married, and no longer.

ITEM. To my son-in-law John Gibbs, who married my daughter Ann Gleason, I give and bequeath Five Shillings in money to be rayised and payed out of my estate.

ITEM. I give and bequeath to my well beloved daughter Sarah Morse, one cow.

ITEM. I give and bequeath to my grandson John Gibbs, one cow and his bringing up, and if he shall continue with and faithfully serve my son John Gleason until he arrive at one and twenty years of age, I ordain that my son John Gleason pay unto him ten pounds to be Levied out of his portion of my Estate.

ITEM. I give and bequeath to my well beloved sons Isaac Gleason and John Gleason (whom I likewise constitute make and ordain the executors of this my last will and testament) all my other estate that may or shall be found after my decease, not above bequeathed, whether it be in lands, messuages or tenements or Town Rights, which may be to be taken up in the Town of Sherborn—Moveables not within mentioned or bequeathed, or any other species of my estate that may be found after my decease and not hereby bequeathed to any other—whatsoever to them and to their assigns freely to be possessed and enjoyed by them and to be equally divided between them.

ITEM. I ordain and appoint that my sons, said Isaac and John Gleason, pay the following Legacys to be rayased and Levyed out of their portions of my Estate hereby to them bequeathed, each one of them to bear an equal share of the said Legacy—That is to say :

To my Daughter Patience Gleason Fifteen Pounds to be paid unto her within Three years after my decease.

To my Daughter Mary Gleason Fifteen Pounds alsoe, to be paid unto her alsoe within three years after my decease.

And I do hereby utterly Disallow, Revoke and Disannull all and every other former testaments, Wills and Legacys and Executors by me in any way before this time named, willed and bequeathed, Ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and Testament ; In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, the day and year before written.

26. IX. THANKFUL.

Corporal Joseph Gleason, the father, seems to have been a citizen of some prominence in the town of Sudbury. During King William's, or the Ten Year's War between France and England, when the French in Canada were making allies of the Indians, and by this means harrassing the Colonists, Sudbury suffered less than in King Phillip's War, but at the same time was subject to sudden incursions. In arranging for protection against these dangers, the public stock of ammunition was distributed for safe keeping among certain citizens, one of whom was Corporal Joseph Gleason.

He was also a signer of a petition, bearing no date, but which is preserved in State Archives. This petition is addressed to the Governor and sets forth the pitiful condition of the colonists at Sudbury by reason of the military service and contributions required of them, and asking such alleviation as might be possible.

He, with his sons Isaac and Joseph were among the signers of a petition to the Sudbury Court, dated Oct. 29, 1707, relative to separating the town into divisions.

The date of birth of Martha, given as the third child of this family, does not appear on the records. But as the eldest son was named Joseph for his father, it is more than likely that the first daughter would have been named for the mother.

As the date of birth of the last child, Thankful, is not known, it is not certain whether she was the daughter of the first wife or of the second.

4. JOHN GLEASON,<sup>2</sup> (Thomas,<sup>1</sup>) was b. in Watertown, Mass., in 1647; d. Sudbury, Mass., in 1689; m. in Sudbury, Mass., Jan. 10, 1673, Mary, dau. of James and Mary (Goodnow) Ross, who was born in Sudbury, Mass., Dec. 25, 1656, or 1659.

John Gleason was a soldier in King Philip's War, Capt. Joseph Syll's Co, Maj. Willard's Regt. from Aug. 7, 1675 to Jan. 25, 1676, and credited March 24, 1676, £1 8s 2d

The parents of Mary Ross, wife of John Gleason, were among the early settlers of Sudbury. The name of her father, James Ross, appears in the list of passengers on board the "John &

Sarah" from London Nov. 11, 1651, Captain John Greene. This list contains the names of several passengers by the name of Ross and two by the name of James Ross.

There is an old record to the effect that a James Ross of Sudbury was a soldier and in the spring of 1676 his wife Mary stated that her husband had gone to Narragansett under Capt. Mosely, and owing to his age and the suffering condition of his family, she petitioned for his release.

James Ross' name is also found in the list of those who suffered loss by the depredations of the Indians during King Philip's War. He probably died in Sudbury Sept. 18, 1690.

Mary Ross' mother, Mary Goodnow (also spelled Goodenow, Goodeno, Goodenough, etc.) was the daughter of Thomas Goodnow of Shasbury, Eng., one of the three brothers Goodnow, who were prominent in the early settlement of Sudbury. Thomas with his wife, Jane, and young son, Thomas, sailed on the ship "Confidence" from London, April 11, 1638.

Mary Goodnow was b. Aug. 25, 1640, and the "History of Sudbury" (Hudson) states that she was killed and scalped by the Indians in 1707, but according to the records of Marlborough, it was Mary, daughter of Samuel Goodnow, Sr., and his wife Mary, who on Aug. 18, 1707, met this fate. This Samuel Goodnow was a younger brother of Mary (Goodnow) Ross; hence the Mary Goodnow who was slain by the Indians was her niece.

7. ISAAC GLEASON,<sup>2</sup> (Thomas,<sup>1</sup>) b. Watertown, Mass., in 1654; d. in Enfield, Conn., May 14, 1698; m. Windsor, Conn., June 26, 1684. Hester, dau. of James and Hester (Williams) Eggleston, who was b. Windsor, Conn., Dec 1, 1663, and d. in Enfield, Conn.

CHILDREN:

31. I. HESTER (or ESTHER) b. Enfield, Conn., July 21, 1685.
- +32. II. ISAAC, b. Enfield, Conn., Nov. 12, 1687; m. Mary Prior.
- +33. III. THOMAS, b. Enfield, Conn., July 29, 1690; m. Elizabeth Deming.
34. IV. ABIGAIL, b. Enfield, Conn., Mar. 14, 1692; m. John Hale, Nov. 21, 1716.

+35. v. MARAH, b. Aug. 7, 1695; m. Caleb Booth.

36. vi. DEBORAH, b. Jan. 23, 1698; m. Sept. 8, 1726, Noah Strong.

Hester Eggleston's father, James Eggleston, was the son of Begat Eggleston, who came from England (probably Exeter) to Dorchester, Mass., 1630. Her mother, Hester Williams, was the sister of Roger Williams, and is said to have been the first white child born in Hartford.

James Eggleston was in the Pequot Fight and received a grant of 50 acres of land for his services. He d. suddenly Dec. 1, 1679, and his widow m. 2nd James Enno.

Isaac Gleason enlisted in King Philip's War and is credited at the Garrison at Springfield, Mass., June 24, 1676 with £17 04s 09d; Aug. 24, 1676 credited with £6 18s 10d.

He was admitted as an inhabitant into the town of Springfield, Mass., Feb. 5, 1676. Here, in 1678, he is named on a list of about 130 persons who took the oath of allegiance. The order for convening these persons, and of administering the oath, was given by Maj. John Pyncheon, under the authority of the general court held in Boston, Oct. 2, 1678.

From the town records of Springfield the following extract is copied:

"Feb. 9, 1679. At meeting of selectmen Isaack Gleason ordered to look after South door of meeting house to prevent persons, especially boys, from leaving church unnecessarily during service."

He was probably a carpenter, as appears from an account of the new meeting house in Springfield, Dec. 1680. "To Isaac Gleason for 17 days at 3s per day £02 11s."

He removed to Enfield, Conn. where he settled in 1681. It is recorded on the records of Major Pyncheon that "Isaac Gleason was married to Hester Eggleston" of Windsor, June 26, 1684. Died at Enfield 1698, aged 44.

8. WILLIAM GLEASON,<sup>2</sup> (Thomas,<sup>1</sup>) b. Cambridge, Mass., 1655; d. in Cambridge Jan. 14, 1690-1; m. Abiel Bartlett, who was born in Watertown probably May 28, 1651.

CHILDREN: Born, Cambridge, Mass.

 vs & children, they giving bond, & to this inventory I hav attached an oath in open court.

MR. SAMUEL PHIPPS; Clerk.
 (Middlesex Co. Probate Court Records.)

William Gleason was a soldier in King Philip's War, and on June 24, 1675, is credited with £2 14s. He served under Capt.
 Nathaniel Davenport, and Capt. Ting. His name also appears on the returns, dated Nov. 25 to Dec. 3, 1675. The name is spelled Gleson and Glesson.

He was also a soldier in the French and Indian War, accredited to Cambridge, Mass.

Thomas Gleason settled in Framingham near his father, his lot being No. 14, at the southeast corner of Main and Sutton streets; house No. 194. Years later a brick house was built on the same site. He removed to Oxford, Mass. about 1723. On Oct. 3, 1723 he deeded his home lot, House No. 194, to his son Thomas, who sold it to Jacob Cummings Nov. 21, 1726. He and his wife, with about thirty others, were signers of the Covenant, and were the founders of the church in Oxford, Jan. 18, 1720-1. He was one of the Selectmen of Oxford from 1723 to 1726; Constable 1721. On Sept. 6, 1709 he served on a committee in Framingham "to lay out such highways as are needful for the 17 families to go to meeting, and to mill, and to market." On tax list June 27, 1710, rated 1s 7d. Thomas and his two brothers, Isaac and John were signers of a petition dated June 11, 1711 to his Excellency Joseph Dudley relative to purchasing 4000 acres from the Indians of Natick.

The site of Howarth's Mill was sold by Abraham Skinner, the original proprietor, to Thomas Gleason in March 1722. This included the house, lot and water privilege of Skinner, located at Augetteback Falls. Thomas, who was a man of means, settled here, built a grist mill and saw mill. His estate included "mills and streams, with homestead and buildings."

The following land transfers, to which Thomas Gleason was party, appear of record.

May 27, 1723, Thomas Gleason deeded to Jonah Gleason, Husbandman, "in consideration of love, good will and affection which I have and do bear toward my well beloved son Jonah Gleason" a certain 61 Lot which Thomas Gleason bought of Joseph Chamberlain, situated & lying in Oxford Village.

Apr. 21, 1724, he deeded to his son Elijah "in consideration of love, good will and affection" a certain sixty acres of land situated on Prospect Hill in Oxford, being the 16th lot by draft in the second range.

May 27, 1723, he also deeded to his son Thomas, who is styled a Husbandman, in consideration of "love, good will and affection" a 40 acre home lot in Oxford Village, together with a certain lot of meadow, which was the 2nd in number—reserving a drift way between the two pieces; also 20 acres of land, being a part of the first 60 acre division, and the second 60 acre lot belonging to the house lot which Thomas, the father, had taken up in Oxford by draft in the 2nd range, and one lot lying in the Great Cedar Swamp in Oxford, being the second lot by draft.

This deed was not registered until Oct. 3, 1723.

Feb. 12, 1721-2, Abraham Skinner, blacksmith, of Oxford, sold to Thomas Gleason of Framingham, in consideration of £200 10s Sundry parcels, messuages of land in Oxford, viz.: a certain 40 acre home lot of land, together with 2 1/2 acres of meadow, lying within that home lot, and also a certain piece of upland estimated at one acre and a half; also a certain sawmill standing & being on the River being considered within the home lot, with all the irons appertaining thereto, the Damm & stream belonging to the same.

Jan. 23, 1721, Thomas bo't of Benony Twitchell, a husbandman of Oxford, for £24, a sixty acre division or tract of land situate in Oxford upon Prospect Hill, being the 16th lot in number of the 2nd division in the 3rd range.

Jan. 28, 1721, Thomas bo't of Joseph Chamberlain, husbandman, of Oxford, for £23 7s a sixty acre lot lying in Oxford, upon the easterly part of Prospect Hill, being the 22nd in number of the 2nd division in the 3rd range.

14. ISAAC GLEASON,<sup>3</sup> (Thomas,<sup>2</sup> Thomas,<sup>1</sup>) b. in Sherborn, Mass., 1674; d. in Framingham, Mass., Dec. 5, 1737; m. in Sherborn Dec. 11, 1700, Deborah, dau. of Ebenezer & Deborah Leland, who was born in Sherborn Aug. 16, 1679.

CHILDREN: All born in Framingham, Mass.

+68. IV. PHINEAS, b. Aug. 3rd or 23rd, 1711; m. Elizabeth —

Isaac Gleason settled in Framingham near his father, his house being located about 45 rods southeasterly from what is known in later years as the old Charles Clark house.

The old records contain the following entry:

"Isaac Gleason was chosen to and accepted of the care of our publick meeting house, to sweep and keep it decent and clean for the year 1713, and is to have 19s for said service."

In 1710, Isaac Gleason is recorded as an inhabitant of Sherborn and received a share of the common lands. He is on the tax list of that year, rated 7s.

CHILDREN: (Of James Coller of Framingham.)

69. I. JONATHAN COLLER.

70. II. DAVID COLLER.

71. III. SARAH COLLER.

The above record is in accordance with one authority, but is obviously erroneous. There was a Patience Gleason and a James Coller married as stated, but it could hardly have been this Patience Gleason and certainly not this James Coller.

16. MARY GLEASON,<sup>3</sup> (Thomas,<sup>2</sup> Thomas,<sup>1</sup>) b. in Sherborn, Mass., June 19, 1680; m. in Roxbury, 1714, Jacob Pepper, who was b. in Roxbury, July 1661, and d. Framingham, Apr. 10, 1739.

17. JOHN GLEASON,<sup>3</sup> (Thomas,<sup>2</sup> Thomas,<sup>1</sup>) b. in Sherborn, Mass., in 1683; d. Framingham, May 9, 1740; m. in Framingham, in 1706/7, Abigail, dau. of Isaac and Sarah (Bigelow) Learned, who was b. in Framingham, Mch. 11, 1684.

CHILDREN: All born in Framingham, Mass.

- +75. I. EBENEZER, b. Sept. 1, 1708; m. Thankful Johnson.
- 76. II. JOHN, b. Feb. 27, 1711; probably d. young; not mentioned in his father's will.
- 77. III. ANNE, b. May 3, 1713; m. Nov. 22, 1733, John Drury.
- +78. IV. SAMUEL, b. Dec. 13, 1715; m. 1st, Elizabeth Howe; m. 2d, Dorothy Faux; m. 3d, Abigail Livermore.
- +79. V. ABIGAIL, b. Nov. 13, 1717; m. James Claves.
- +80. VI. MARTHA, b. May 1, 1729; m. Jonathan Maynard.
- 81. VII. SARAH, b. Feb. 6, 1724; m. John Crooks of Hopkinton.
- +82. VIII. PATIENCE, b. July 7, 1729; m. Daniel Ball.

John Gleason's name is the first recorded on a tax list June 2 1710, 2s 5d. He and his brother Isaac received the greater portion of the estate of their father Thomas Gleason. July 11, 1711, he was a signer of a petition to purchase lands from the Indians; on March 24, 1712, he was on a committee to regulate disorders in the meeting house. During the winter of 1714 school was kept one month in his house. On March 5, 1715, he was given charge of the town stock of ammunition. April 19, 1725, he was on a committee to arrange for the erection of a new meeting house; Dec. 1730 was a signer of a petition to the general court to have the town of Framingham divided. The records of 1735 contain the following entry: "In this year Wm. Pike sold for £14 to John Gleason & four others, in trust for the whole town of Framingham, 4 acres of land." He was selectman 1718-21-31.

By his will dated April 10, 1740, John Gleason made the following bequests :

"To wife ABIGAIL, easterly portion of my now dwelling house, to the middle of the stack of chimneys, together with half the cellar under the westerly end of said house, and an equal half part of the entry way and stairs into the cellar and up to the chamber ; and one half part of the house platt & meadow lying on the same side of the way which said house standeth on, as also the use, improvement and income of one third part of all my other Lands and meadows in Framingham and Natick. And I further give and bequeath all my household goods, stock and moveables to my above said wife.

"Son EBENEZER westerly part of said dwelling house, half the cellar and entry way and stairs, half the house platt and meadows ; and one third part of other lands and meadows in Framingham and Natick, and Barn standing near house.

"Son SAMUEL one third part of my lands and meadows in Framingham and Natick. After decease of wife all housing and lands to be equally divided between Ebenezer and Samuel.

"Daughter ANN DRURY, wife of John Drury, £80 two years after my decease.

"Daughter ABIGAIL £100 three years after my decease.

"Daughter MARTHA £100 three years after my decease, or at the time of marriage if that shall first happen.

"Daughters SARAH & PATIENCE, each £100 at age of 21, or at the time of their marriage if that shall first happen.

"Wife Abigail and son Ebenezer appointed executors."

- 112. VIII. SUBMIT, b. May 13, 1733.
- 113. IX. MARTHA, b. Dec. 23, 1734; d. May 3, 1793.

The first record of James is of his being in Marlboro in 1711, when he was assigned to the garrison of Samuel Forbush at that place. In 1717 or 1718 he and Thomas took up land near each other in Worcester, and about the same date they took up neighboring lots in Shrewsbury.

Ensign John Barrett, the father of Mary, wife of James Gleason d. Oct. 5, 1715, and by the terms of his will he constituted and appointed "my son James Gleason to be my sole executor of this my last will." James appears to have taken charge of his father-in-law's estate and in 1732 bought the interest of the widow Deborah Barrett and in 1744 he bought the interests of the heirs of the daughter Hannah.

Deborah Barrett, mother of James Gleason's wife, was the daughter of Abraham and Hannah (Ward) Howe.

The name "James Gleason" appears among the soldiers of the Louisburg expedition, and while the fragmentary records make absolute identification impossible, there is little doubt that this was James of Marlboro.

On July 28, 1750, James Gleason divided his real estate between his sons John and Joseph, giving about 40 acres to each.

29. THOMAS GLEASON,<sup>3</sup> (John,<sup>2</sup> Thomas,<sup>1</sup>) was b. in Sudbury in 1686; d. in Worcester, Mass., 1755; inventory of estate taken Sept. 26; m. in 1721 Priscilla, dau. of Isaac and Priscilla (Ball) Miller, who was b. in Sudbury Oct. 25, 1703 and d. in Worcester in 1777; Inventory of estate taken Aug. 5.

Thirty acres of land in Worcester were assigned to Thomas, on which he erected a house, in compliance with the order of the Court.

After the death of Thomas Gleason, his widow Priscilla was appointed administratrix of his estate. She declined and appealed to the Hon. Joseph Wilder, Judge of the Probate Court, who appointed as administrators, the sons Isaac and Phinehas, but the name of the later was subsequently cancelled from the papers.

The estate included 50 acres of land valued at £320 and a long list of goods and chattels.

Isaac Miller, father of Thomas Gleason's wife, Priscilla, was b. in Charlestown, Mass., Aug. 3, 1670. He was the son of James Miller, a Scotchman, and his wife Mary. James Miller died Aug. 1, 1788 at the age of over 70 years, hence he was born about 1615.

Isaac Miller was married Jan. 6, 1796, in Concord, Mass., by the Rev. Mr. Joseph Esterbrook, to Priscilla Ball, of Concord, who was probably the daughter of Eleazer Ball and a descendant of John Ball, the Emigrant, the line of descent being as follows :

JOHN BALL m. Elizabeth ——. He was a freeman in Concord, 1650 ; d. 1655.

NATHANIEL BALL m. Mary ——

ELEAZER BALL b. about 1650 ; m. in Concord Sept. 25, 1675, Priscilla Wood (Middlesex Co. records say Woodward).

JOHN WINCHESTER
EDWARD WHITE
THOMAS ASPINWALL

Dated Apr. 1, 1742

Apr. 16, 1742, Samuel Gleason, adm'r, appeared in Probate Court and made oath as to its correctness. The appraisers, with Solomon Hill and Henry Sewell, were appointed to divide the estate and give a third to the widow. Her share was "the easterly part of the homestead as it is now staked off, containing one third part of the cellar, with one third part of the barn at the westerly end with a free passage to and from the premise, together with one third part of the pasture and woodland on the easterly side as it is now staked off."

Jan. 1, 1742-3, Edward Ruggles, Solomon Hill and Henry Sewell sent a petition to the Probate Judge claiming the estate of William Gleason "was incapable of a division among all his children without great prejudice to or spoiling the whole." The Judge in answer appointed the petitioners to make an appraisement of the real estate for his attention. Their report bearing date Jan. 5, 1742-3, values the estate as follows:

House and barn at £34 10s . . . . .	34	10
Homestead of 5 acres at £8 15s an acre . . . . .	43	15
Pasture of 13 acres at £5 15s an acre . . . . .	74	15
Total . . . . .	153	—

On receipt of the appraisement Judge Willard then disposed and divided the estate as follows : "All the housing and lands to the son of Samuel, saving unto his mother Thankful Gleason her right of dower therein for term of life. Samuel Gleason also paying thereout unto his brothers and sisters or their legal representatives their rateable parts of the appraised value. That is to say : to the brother William Gleason as his double portion the sum of £26, and to the rest of the children, viz.: Joseph, Charles, Benjamin, Experience and Thankful £13 apiece on or before the 6th of January, 1743, with interest for the said sums in the interim, rate of 6 per cent. per annum. At the death of the mother or at the time of her becoming quit of the premises, Samuel to pay to William £13 and the rest of the brothers and sisters £6 10s apiece, to complete their respective portions."

In 1771 he was on a committee to examine meeting house and report the repairs to be made.

The will of Samuel Gleason on file with the probate records is as follows :

In the name of God Amen; This twenty ninth day of January A.D. 1789 I, Samuel Gleason of Framingham in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, being aged and under the decays of nature, But of perfect mind and memory blessed be God, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, Do make and ordain this my last will and testament; that is to say, Principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, hoping for salvation through the merits of Jesus Christ, and my body I recommend to the Earth to be buried in a decent manner at the direction of my Executor after named; believing it shall be raised again by the mighty power of God; and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give, demise and dispose of in the following manner and form, that is to say, I will and ordain that my just debts and funeral charges be duly and timely paid out of my estate by my executor hereinafter named.

Imp's. I give and bequeath unto my well beloved son Samuel Gleason and to each of my beloved daughters viz; Doly Drury, Martha Bigelow and Mary Morse, each the sum of ten pounds to what I have heretofore given them, which together with what is herein after mentioned makes up their full portions out of my es tate, the said sum of ten pounds each to be paid by my son John Gleason or his heirs, within two years after my decease, either in lawful silver money, or in personal estate or lands at an apprizement of three indifferent men, as my son John or his heirs shall chuse; also I give and bequeath to my said son Samuel one half part of all my wearing apparel and to my three daughters above named and to their Heirs and Assigns all my household Furniture, to be equally divided between them at my decease; but if it shall so happen that Abigail my wife, shall survive or overlive me, then my will is that but one half thereof at my decease shall be divided between my said daughters, my said wife to have the use of the other half until her decease, after which the same shall be divided between my said daughters as aforesaid.

ITEM. I give and bequeath to my beloved son the said John Gleason and to his Heirs and Assigns forever all the rest or residue of my Estate both Real and Personal of what name or nature soever, and if it shall so happen that my said wife shall survive or overlive me, then my said son John or his Heirs shall take good care of her, and shall provide for her both in sickness and in health so long as she shall remain my widow, and in case she shall not hereafter marry, she (after her decease) to be decently buried by my said son John or his Heirs; and I constitute and appoint my said son John Gleason sole executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and Seal the Day and year first above written.

SAMUEL GLEASON.

Signed, sealed, Published and declared by the said Samuel Gleason as his last will and testament in the presence of us.

Jonathan Maynard, second son of Jonathan and Martha (Gleason) Maynard, was a graduate of Harvard University, and Sgt. in Capt. Drury's Co. at the Battle of Bunker Hill. He was subsequently Lieut. in the same Co. In 1778 he was Lieut. in one of Col. Ichabod Allen's Companies and on May 30th of that year, while stationed near West Point, he, with a small party went on a foraging excursion. When at a considerable distance from the camp they were attacked and captured by Indians. They were taken some distance further from the American lines and all the party tomahawked excepting Lieut. Maynard. Recognizing his uniform as that of an officer, the Indians took him to their chief-tain, whose name was Brant. It was decided to burn the captive, and all preparations were accordingly made, when as a last resort, Lieut. Maynard gave the Freemason's sign of distress, though ignorant of the fact that any of those present were members of that organization. It so happened that the chief was a Free Mason, and recognizing the sign, ordered the execution postponed.

Lieut. Maynard was later taken, with other prisoners, to Quebec, where he was held until Dec. 1780, when he was exchanged. The next month, Jan. 1781, he rejoined his Company at West Point, and the same month was promoted to the Captaincy and continued in the service until Nov. 19, 1782.

The record of Isaac Gleason's Revolutionary Service (which is confirmed by the official records of Massachusetts) is given in an article which appeared in the "Worcester Spy" in October, 1902. This article gives an account of the search for the grave of Isaac Gleason, and is as follows:

"For the first time in over 20 years, the old burying ground on the Common was dug up yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of finding the remains of one of the old time residents of the city. The unusual performance was at the request of Daniel A. Gleason of Medford (No. 3473) Treasurer of the Fitchburg R.R. Company whose ancestors for six generations were born and brought up in Worcester.

"The hunt yesterday afternoon was made for the body of Isaac Glezen, and the headstone was discovered about four feet beneath the surface of the ground, a couple of rods southeast of the band stand. The headstone was one of the old fashioned slate variety, the base being rough and the part that used to stand above the ground being smoothed sufficiently to allow the engraving of the dead man's name. This was about all that could be discovered yesterday afternoon as the age of the stone is considerable, the body of Isaac Glezen having been buried in January 1776.

"Mr. Gleason had the headstone removed and will have it buried in Hope Cemetery, where the bodies of his father, his grandfather and great-grandfather are buried. An attempt will be made to find the body of Isaac Gleason, but it is doubtful if any trace of it remains after all these years.

"Mr. Gleason has been at work several years, hunting up the burial places of his ancestors in Worcester, and he said to a reporter for "The Spy" yesterday afternoon, that he will give $50 for information that will reveal the last resting place of the father of Isaac "Glezen" as the name is spelled on the headstone and in the old records of Worcester.

"The father of Isaac Glezen was Thomas Glezen, one of the 30 men to whom the original allotments of land was made for the permanent settlement of Worcester in 1715, after the first settlement had been destroyed by the Indians.

"Isaac Gleason was one of the minute men of the Revolution and his son Jonathan (John according to some records) belonged to the militia that helped drive the British out of the state. Isaac responded to the call for troops at Lexington and Concord, and while in camp he contracted the disease which caused his death. His son Jonathan (or John) was in the company of militia men commanded by Timothy Bigelow, whose monument stands on the Common."

On May 26, 1774, the Selectmen of Dudley nominated the Rev. Chas. Gleason, with five others, one of whom was to be chosen as resident minister. On June 11th the vote was cast resulting in the choice of Mr. Gleason "to the work of the gospel ministry in sd. town, by a great majority of vots—46 vots out of 54". In July he was given as a consideration for his settling in Dudley to carry on the work of the ministry, 400 pounds in Bills of Credit of the old tenor, and his salary was fixed at 180 pounds in bills of credit of the old tenor for the first year, five pounds per year to be added until it reached the sum of 200 pounds.

The Selectmen also voted to give him after the expiration of four years, 200 cords of wood yearly for the support of his fire, same to be carted to his house. The town presented him with an acre and a half of land the following September and on Wednesday, Oct. 31, 1744, he was ordained.

From the town records of Dudley we find his letter of acceptance, which reads as follows :

TO THE CHURCH & TOWN OF DUDLEY.

Gentlemen :

The first offers you made with me to settle with you in the ministry were such as I verily believe it was not my duty to accept, and though you have since made some addition yet I have at present that charity for you as to think you have not increased them as you would have done had not your circumstances been so difficult, as I perceive just now they are. I have taken into serious consideration your invitation and offeres, ye circumstances of the time and of your town and have concluded to answer as follows, viz.

1st—as to the settlement you offer, though it is small yet what some persons not living in the town have given encouragement they will do for me besides ye 400 which you offer, moves me to accept it, and run the risque which I think is not small, of getting land by and by to settle upon.

2nd—as to the salary, it is so small that were you a large and able people I would not accept it, but I expect that you will keep up ye value of it by making it yearly equal to silver at so much an ounce, as it is at this time, and also that in case my circumstances by & by call for & yours will admit it, you'll make further addition to it. I fully expected you would have given me some wood at my first settling with you, but since you have not done it, I won't now insist upon it, but I would let you know that I depend upon your giving me a sufficiency of fire wood yearly after the expiration of ye four first years, for I am fully persuaded yt ye salary you offer me will barely enough serve to provide other necessaries. Upon the whole I would let you know yt I depend much upon your generiosty towards me in case you shall be able and I stand in need; and now hoping I am in ye way of my duty, I hearly declare yt I accept your invitation to settle with you in ye work of ye ministry, entreating of God to furnish me for and assist me in the great and important work and undertaking, and to make me an instrument of promoting your unity, peace & comfort & everlasting salvation; in fine begging of God to bless and prosper you in all your lawfull interest and concern & to enable me to live in love and peace while on earth, and at death to translate me to his heavnly kingdom and glory, I subscrib your affectionate friend and servant

CHARLES GLEASON.

Dudley, Sept. ye 13th 1744.

The people of Dudley, however, were very negligent in meeting their obligations, and the records show that for over forty years there was a continual deficit in the payment of the salary. This finally reached such an amount that Mr. Gleason made the following appeal.

“The subscriber demand of the people of this town the Eighty Seven pounds arrearages granted me by the town at their town-meeting in May 1785; and the interest of it from that day to this day.”

CHARLES GLEASON.

Dudley, Apr. 6th, 1789.

The appeal failing to bring about a settlement Mr. Gleason brought suit, which was pending at the date of his death, May 7, 1790. The action was continued by his son William, and a compromise effected on Apr. 4, 1791, by which the town paid 55 pounds in settlement of all claims.

CHILDREN :

430. I. SAMUEL, b. Boston, Apr. 19, 1743.

431. II. MARY, bp. in Milton, Apr. 21, 1744.

432. III. SARAH, bp. in Milton, Aug. 2, 1747.

The Probate Records contain the following regarding the settlement of Benjamin Gleason's estate.

Aug. 22, 1758, Elijah Glover, yeoman, of Milton was appointed administrator of the goods and estate of Benjamin Gleason. Samuel Kingsley of Milton and William Glover of Dorchester were bound with Elijah Glover for the faithful discharge of the trust. The inventory of Benjamin's estate was taken Jan. 15, preceding and reads as follows :

A bedstead and bedding . . . . .	1	2	0
8 lbs. of old pewter . . . . .		8
A Trammel shovell and skillet . . . . .		7
A small kettle . . . . .		1	2
His apparel . . . . .		4	2
2 tables, 4 chairs . . . . .		18
2 old cask . . . . .		1	6
5 hundred of English hay . . . . .		8
	3	9	10

Signed by EBENEZER BENT,
GEORGE BABCOCK,
EBENEZER SWIFT.

The following articles of cash were found and a note of hand due the estate.

To rec'd. for his share in the prizes taken by the province ship of war, Benja Hallowell, commander, £52 8s 3d.

To a Province note for wages due on board sd. ship £8 6s 3d.

To John Webb's note not rec'd for £7 6s 8d, lawful £7 6s 8d.

The whole of his estate as per inventory and articles of cash amounted to £64 4s 4d. The account shows the estate was debtor to the amount of £73 7s 6d after £10 had been paid to his widow Jane, order of the Probate Judge, Thomas Hutchinson. As the debts of the estate exceeded the assets, Elijah Glover, administrator, asked for instructions from the Probate Judge how to proceed, but no further record of administration can be found.

Dr. Erastus Root was graduated from the Vermont University in 1814 and from the Medical Dept. of Dartmouth College in 1817. He d. in Betsburg, N. Y., leaving one child, a daughter.

Deacon Timothy Root was b. July 27, 1743, in Ft. Drummer, near Brattleboro, Vt., whither his parents had gone for safety from the Indians. His early life was spent at Northfield, Mass., but later he removed to Guilford township, Windham Co., Vt., where he was for many years Deacon of the Congregational church. He d. Dec. 12, 1843, at the age of 100 years, 4 months, 15 days.

Mr. John Barber White of Kansas City (a great grandson of Patience Gleason by her 1st husband John Barber) recalls hearing his mother tell that on Timothy Root's one hundredth birthday, July 27, 1843, her husband (Mr. White's father) took him out for a drive. The attention greatly pleased the old gentleman, but in reply to his expressions of gratitude, Mr. White told him he considered it a great privilege to go driving with a gentleman who was 100 years old, and that it was an honor of which few could boast.

The record of the succeeding generations of the descendants of Patience (Gleason) Barber and Timothy Root are taken from the Root Genealogy (James Pierce Root, 1870).

Patience Gleason was possessed of a strong character and unusual capabilities.

Levi Gleason (spelled Glezen by this branch of the family) was graduated from Williams College in 1798, ranking among the first of his class. He early attracted the notice of Major Azariah Eggleston, who secured for him the position of Principal of a private school in Lenox, Mass. When the Lenox Academy was built and incorporated in 1803, Mr. Gleason was made its Principal, which position he filled acceptably until 1823.

He was for thirteen years (1813 to 1826) member of the Board of Trustees of Williams College. Durfee's Biographical Annals of William's College contains the following sketch of him :

"Levi Glezen was b. at Stockbridge Dec. 15, 1775 ; fitted for college in his father's house ; was graduated from Williams College in 1798, ranking among the best scholars of his class. Soon after his graduation he commenced teaching in Lenox, and was the first preceptor of the Lenox Academy. This institution acquired, under Mr. Glezen's tuition, a respectable standing and was widely patronized. The instruction was generally judicious, and thorough. Mr. Glezen was a fine linguist ; he sustained a fair Christian character, and was successful in fitting many young men for college. He was very near-sighted and his eyes must have been peculiar. I recollect one evening in the street a letter was handed to him ; he opened and read it without any difficulty by starlight. Occasionally a student would take advantage of his short sightedness, and the result was no little merriment in school. Many students there laid the foundation of their future eminence and usefulness. Mr. Glezen was Trustee of Williams College from 1813 to 1826. When a powerful effort was made to remove the College to Northampton, he firmly withstood the effort to the last. For his independence and firmness he is entitled to the thanks of posterity. In 1824 Mr. Glezen accepted an invitation to take charge of the Academy at Kinderhook, N. Y., where he remained about six years. He then retired from teaching and took up his residence in Sheffield, Mass., where he d. Oct. 21, 1843, in his 67th year."

An amusing incident is related showing Mr. Gleason's absent-mindedness. The occasion was one of the famous dinners at Major Eggleston's house, at a time when the examinations and exhibitions of the Academy had been particularly acceptable.

Mr. Gleason occupied the post of honor on that day, at Major Eggleston's right, who turned to him just after the serving of soup and said to him : "Mr. Gleason you have a feather in your cap to-day." Evidently thinking of something else, Mr. Gleason put his hand to his head, and in doing so overturned his soup plate into his napkin, and then in his absentmindedness wiped his face with it. Many such stories have been told by Mr. Gleason's pupils, but with all his eccentricities, his pupils revered his memory, and many of them who, in after years became successful men, gratefully acknowledged the helpfulness of his influence and training.

- 1144. IV. AMASA BACON, bp. June 2, 1771.
- 1145. V. MASKILL BACON, bp. Whitsunday, 1775.

The Bacons of Simsbury were descended from Thomas and Abigail (Maskill) Bacon, and the name Maskill was a favorite one in the family, hence, unless some other designation was given it is often impossible to decide positively to which Maskill Bacon the records refer. The Maskill Bacon who is presumably the father of the above family is, apparently, designated as Maskill, Jr.

The records show other children of Maskill Bacon (not mentioned as Maskill, Jr.) as follows :

Levi, Chloe, Horace and Thedee, bp. Nov. 30, 1769 ; Roger bp. Apr. 30, 1772.

The following tribute to the memory of Maj. Ebenezer S. Gleason appeared in the Connecticut Courant, of June 29, 1908:

"Major Ebenezer S. Gleason died in Farmington, of the spotted fever, June 23, 1808, aged 39, leaving an amiable widow and seven children to deplore the irreparable loss of a husband so dear, and a father so affectionate and indulgent. Endowed by his Heavenly father with a mind quick and active, and a genius lively and brilliant, he often delighted his friends with the innocent enjoyment of 'the feast of reason and the flow of soul.' Possessed of intelligence, activity and decision, whatever his duty called him to do as his friends who knew him best will attest, he ever conducted with firmness, dignity, patriotism and honor. The loss of an officer of so much promise is justly a subject of deep and general regret."

405. DOLLY GLEASON,<sup>5</sup> (Isaac,<sup>4</sup> Thomas,<sup>3</sup> Isaac,<sup>2</sup> Thomas,<sup>1</sup>) b. Dec. 12, 1769; m. Rev. Edward Porter, a graduate of Yale College. The Revolutionary Records of Mass. contain the following regarding the services of an Ephraim Gleason of Granville, Mass.:

"Ephraim Gleason—Private, Capt. William Cooley's Co., Col. John Moseley's (Hampshire Co.) Regt.; enlisted Aug. 17, 1777; discharged Aug. 19, 1777; services 4 days; company marched towards Bennington on an Alarm. Roll sworn to at Granville."

The above record may refer to Ephraim, the son, but Ephraim, the father, and Luther the son were in the service in 1776.

Lieut. Howard S. Gleason of Louisville, Ky., (No. 4937) has in his possession a large collection of interesting old letters and documents pertaining to the Gleason family history. In this collection there are a number of letters written by Ephraim Gleason, the son, to his father, while the latter was stationed at Mt. Hope. There are also a few letters from Ephraim, the father, to his wife and family, but unfortunately, like the famous Captain of Plymouth, Ephraim was evidently a better fighter than a writer, and the letters make no mention of the interesting events that were occurring at that time, but they prove conclusively that Ephraim, the father, was in the army, and that a son, Luther Gleason, was with him; also John Gleason, evidently the nephew, (No. 1187). One of these letters is as follows:

"Mount Hope, Nov. 5th, 1776.

"Loving Wife:

"This is to let you know that through the divine goodness, I am getting better of the camp distemper which I have had very bad and John and Luther have had it, and got well of it; and I shall set out for home as soon as I am able to travel, which I hope won't be long. I have no news to write, but the enemy has left Crown Point, and I don't think they will trouble us any more this year.

"This from your loving husband and friend.

"EPHRAIM LEESON.

"N. B.—John sends his love to his honored father and mother, and the rest of his friends."

dear wife this is to let you know that there the Perrygoes I am a getting better of the Consumption which I have had since Dad and John and Susan as he it and get well of it and I shall let out for home as

Letter, Ephraim Gleason, Sr., to his wife, 1776.

To Miss Hannah Gleason at Granville with Love and Good

Address.

A letter written by Ephraim, the son, three days prior to the date of the above letter, is as follows :

“Granville, Nov. 2, 1776.

“Honored Father :

“After my love to you and my brother Luther, hoping these few lines will find you in good health as by the blessing of Almighty God we are in at present. Thanks be to God for our health and strength. I hope that God will prosper you and in his own due time will return you home again.

“I haven’t any news to write at present. I would inform you that I haven’t had any letter from you since the 30th day of September (when) your last letter was dated. I hope you will take some opportunity to send word how (you) fare in the Army. So no more shall (I) write at present, only to subscribe myself unto you,

“Your most dutiful son,

“EPHRAIM GLESON, JR.

“N. B.—My love to John Gleason.”

It will be observed that the son spells his name Gleson, while the father signs his name “Leeson,” but on the outside of the letter he addresses it to Mrs. Hannah Gleason.

(See fac simile of each of the foregoing letters on following pages.)

In this collection of old letters, there is also one from Daniel Gleason (evidently No. 1189) to his brother John, while the latter was in the army.

Mr. A. H. Gleason in his notes gives the following children belonging to this family :

CHILDREN :

- 1944. I. NATHANIEL FILLMORE, b. Apr. 19, 1771.
- 1945. II. PHILLIPPIA FILLMORE, b. Mch. 22, 1773.
- 1946. III. CALVIN FILLMORE, b. Apr. 30, 1775.
- 1947. IV. ELIJAH FILLMORE, b. Apr. 8, 1778.
- 1948. V. DARIUS FILLMORE, b. Sept. 28, 1781.

It will be seen, however, that Susanna (Gleason) Fillmore was but five years older than the oldest child mentioned above, and only 15 years older than the youngest.

It is possible that these were the children of Simeon Fillmore by a previous marriage, but they could not have been the children of Susanna Gleason.

Lydia Kellogg, wife of Joseph Gleason, was the daughter of Benjamin and Phebe (Stark) Kellogg, and a descendant of Samuel Kellogg, who settled in Hadley, Mass., in 1664, and was one of the four Emigrant ancestors of that name who came to New England. A synopsis of her lineage is as follows:

SAMUEL KELLOGG, b. probably about 1635; m. 1st, Mrs.
Sarah Gunn, widow; m. 2nd, Sarah Root.

SAMUEL KELLOGG, JR. (son by 1st wife), b. Apr. 11, 1669;
m. Hannah Dickinson.

JOSEPH KELLOGG, b. June 18, 1696; m. Abigail Miller.

JOSEPH KELLOGG, JR., b. Aug. 8, 1718; m. Susanna King.

BENJAMIN KELLOGG, b. Apr. 22, 1744; m. Phebe Stark, dau.
of Moses and Elizabeth Stark, and presumably a near relative of Gen. John Stark.

LYDIA KELLOGG, m. Joseph Gleason.

There were some tragic events in the history of the first two generations of the Kellogg family.

Samuel Kellogg<sup>1</sup> lived in that part of Hadley which in 1668 was set apart as the town of Hatfield. Here on Sept. 19, 1677, occurred a terrible Indian Massacre. Samuel Kellogg's wife, Sarah (Gunn) Kellogg, and her infant son Joseph were murdered and the eldest son Samuel, Jr., was taken prisoner by the Indians and was held by them in captivity until May, 1678, when he and the other prisoners were rescued by Benjamin Waite and Justin Stockwell. Benjamin Kellogg, the father of Lydia, was in the Continental Army and participated in the battle of Saratoga; was probably present at the surrender of Burgoyne.

Lewis Putnam Gleason, the father, early learned the trade of a shoemaker. At the age of twenty-one he set out from his home on foot, carrying his possessions with him, and intending to walk to the State of Maine, to pay a visit to his Grandmother Waldo. At Bedford, Mass. he found employment at his trade, and entered the service of Benjamin Simonds, an extensive shoe manufacturer.

It is interesting to note that in making this journey, the young man started from the same point, and as far as Concord, followed exactly the same route as that taken by his great-grandfather, Israel Putnam, 46 years before, when, aroused by the news of the attack of the British on Lexington and Concord, he mounted his horse and rode away to join the patriots.

The notes prepared by Mr. Albert H. Gleason of Chicago contain the following sketch:

“Roswell Gleason, the father, settled in Dorchester, Mass., in 1818. He associated himself with a Mr. Wilcox in the tinware trade, and on the death of his partner, in 1830, he became sole proprietor of the business. His attention was subsequently diverted to the manufacture of Britannia ware, and brass lamp fixtures, which soon became one of the chief industries of Dorchester. At one time he employed 125 men. In 1849 he still further increased his business by introducing to the American people the art of silver plating, thereby placing on the market a new article of commerce known as plated ware, which immediately sprang into favor among those of moderate means, and he was therefor the pioneer in a business that now constitutes an important branch of the silverware trade. His two sons, on attaining their majority, were each admitted to partnership, and the business was continued until 1871, when, both sons having died, he closed up his affairs and retired. For many years he was one of the most prominent as well as popular residents of Dorchester, Mass., serving as Captain of the Dorchester Rifle Company."

Sarell Gleason, the father, was brought up on a farm and followed agricultural pursuits for some time; but in early manhood came to Dorchester, where he learned the trade of tinsmith. He then opened the first tinsmith's shop in South Boston, which he conducted for many years, until failing health compelled him to give up his business. Later he acted as foreman for his brother Roswell, who was in business as a tinsmith and silver plater.

Capt. Cole was captain of a whaling vessel and on his second voyage after their marriage, his wife accompanied him. They sailed in Nov. 1848 in the ship "William Cowper," from New Bedford, going first to the Cape Verde Islands and thence along the coast of South America, around the Cape of Good Hope and to the Sandwich Islands. Here Mrs. Cole remained, while her husband made his first trip through Bering Strait.

While on this trip, July 15, 1849, Capt. Cole discovered the Plover Islands, having sailed to them before H. M. S. Plover entered that sea.

After a time, Capt. Cole abandoned the sea and went into business in Brattleboro, Vt., and later purchased a farm near Westminster, Vt.

In 1862, he was elected to the State Legislature of Vermont. In 1875, he returned to Westmoreland, N. H., and in 1881 was elected to the Legislature of that state.

Mrs. Cole was possessed of rare social qualities and to the end of her almost four score years and ten, she retained, to a remarkable degree, her intellectual vigor and her physical strength.

Samuel Mills Gleason, second son of this family, prepared for college at Thetford Academy, under Hiram Orcutt, and graduated at Dartmouth College in 1858. He read law with Cornelius W. Clarke, Esq., of Chelsea, and was admitted to the bar in 1861, and began the practice of his profession in Thetford Center, where he still resides. He was State's Attorney in 1864-5, and again in 1868-9. In the notable chancery case of Bicknell & Pollard vs. the Vermont Copper Mining Co., supposed to involve $500,000, he was associated with Hon. John W. Rowell, and made a brilliant argument, which elicited congratulations from Chief Justice Pierpont.

In 1883 he was appointed receiver of the property involved in the suit against the Vermont Copper Mining Co., et al, which was valued at more than one million dollars, which trust he successfully administered.

In 1864-5 he was a member of the State Legislature, and was elected to the Senate in 1880. He has occupied the positions of Trustee of the Thetford Academy, and of the State Normal School at Randolph, Director and Attorney for the West Fairlee Savings Bank, and Trustee of the Bradford Savings Bank and Trust Co. In 1880, Gov. Farnham appointed him Chairman of the Board of R. R. Commissioners, which position he filled acceptably, both to the public and the railroad companies.

In 1886 he was elected, by a large majority, Judge of the Probate Court, for the District of Bradford, and later was re-elected, receiving every vote of both political parties.

ner, which position he held for over 20 years. He took an active part in the social and public affairs of Oswego and was one of the leading citizens of that city. In 1880 he removed to New York where he has built up a large business as manufacturers' agent, and is now actively connected with three large concerns.

Mr. Gleason is possessed of an unusually strong personality and decided opinions. He is a staunch Republican and for many years he has taken an active part in politics, though he has never sought nor accepted any political office for himself. In 1887, he originated the movement of organizing Republican clubs and traveled extensively organizing clubs and inducing the better class of citizens to take an interest in politics. This movement met with great success and he later organized the National League of Republican Clubs at the Chickering Hall Convention in New York City. Mr. Gleason's connection with this work has given him a wide acquaintance with the representative men of the country, with Presidents Harrison, McKinley and Roosevelt, and the prominent leaders in the Republican party.

CHILD :

3446. 1. ALBERT H., b. Oswego, N.Y., July 28, 1858; m. Oct. 4, 1887, Susie, dau. of J. W. Sheldon of Syracuse. No issue.

Albert H. Gleason was graduated from Prof. Hamilton's Military School, and began the study of law with N. W. Nutting, County Judge of Oswego County. In 1880 he removed to New York and was admitted to practice in 1881. In 1883 he formed a partnership with George S. Hastings, and this partnership continued until a few years ago when Mr. Hastings retired but Mr. Gleason is still engaged in practice under the firm name of Hastings & Gleason.

His specialty has been corporation and commercial practice, the organization of corporations, re-organization of business that has become insolvent, and he has been in charge of many large failures.

In 1909 he was elected President of the West Side Republican Club of which he has been an active member for a number of years. In politics he is a Republican, taking an active part in the various political campaigns, but has never held any public office.

At the present time he is First Vice-President of the Chesapeake & Western Railroad Company, and also a member of the Republican Club of the City of New York, the Hardware Club, and the Columbia Yacht Club.

In December, 1861, Mr. Gleason enlisted in Co. K, 8th Regiment Vermont Volunteers, but was rejected on account of his youth. In August, 1862, he again enlisted in Co. E., Vermont Volunteers.

After the close of the war he engaged in farming for a few years, and in 1874 began the study of law. Two years later he was admitted to the bar of Vermont, and in partnership with A. F. Harvey, began the practice of his profession, at West Concord. In 1877 this partnership was dissolved, and Mr. Gleason removed to Lyndonville, where he has since resided, and where he has built up an extensive practice. He has served his county as Assistant Judge of the County Court, and has been elected to various town offices. He is a member of the Congregational Church, and also a prominent member of the Masonic order, and of the Grand Army of the Republic. He has served as Director and Vice President of the Masonic Building Association; Clerk and Treasurer of the Lyndon Building Co., and Director of the National Bank of Lyndon. The following sketch of Dr. Gleason's life appeared in the "Elmira Gazette," of Apr. 5, 1899:

"Dr. Silas O. Gleason, founder of the famous Gleason Sanitarium of this city, is dead. His demise occurred last evening at the Le Grande, in Buffalo, where he had been spending the winter with his wife, who with other members of the family, were with him during his last hours.

"Dr. Gleason was one of Elmira's best known physicians, known principally because he was the founder of Gleason's Sanitarium, which was formerly known, for many years, as the Water Cure. He was born in Colerain, Mass., Nov. 3, 1818, a son of Silas Gleason, a farmer, who moved to Vermont in 1823, where he died about 1870, at the age of 64 years.

"Dr. Silas O. Gleason was educated in the common schools until 21 years old; was brought up to manual labor, and received some schooling also in Whitesboro, Oneida County, N. Y., paying his board by doing chores about the farm, in which occupation he was engaged for about eight months.

"He was a student in Oberlin College for two years, but hard work, too much study and ill-health, compelled him to return to Vermont for a year to recuperate, still, however, keeping up his studies. He next attended the Castleton Medical College of Vermont and graduated third in the class of '44. He practiced in Carlisle for one year, spending the next two years lecturing on anatomy and hygiene in New York State. He traveled in Allegany County in 1847, where he established the third Water Cure in the United States, remaining there two years. He then formed a partnership with Dr. Jackson, now of the Danville Water Cure and bought a hotel at Skaneateles Lake, which he sold after three years to Dr. Jackson. He then went to Burdicks on the east shore of Cayuga Lake, where he stayed one year. From there, in 1852, he removed to this city (Elmira) where he has since made his home. He became associated with Fox Holden and M. Hale in this city, who together built the building of which Dr. Gleason has been sole owner for many years.

"Dr. Gleason married in 1844, Miss Rachel Brooks, daughter of Reuben Brooks, a public man of prominence. After her marriage she took up the study of medicine with her husband, and at the meeting of the eclectics in Syracuse, Dr. Gleason introduced a resolution to admit women to membership, which resolution was carried, his wife being the first woman to enter any medical college in the world which publicly opened its doors to women.

"Dr. Gleason, during his lifetime, treated patients from all over the world, many of them well known. Colfax, Sunset Cox and other distinguished people have been under the Doctor's care.

"During the past few years, his health has been gradually failing and last November he went to Buffalo with his wife and took up his apartments at the Le Grande. He has, since that, grown feebler, until death finally overtook him, resulting from a general breaking down of the system due to old age. Dr. Gleason's wife, his son, E. B., of this city, and daughter, Adele A., of Buffalo, were with him when he passed away. His daughter is a practicing physician in Buffalo, and a graduate of the medical department of the Philadelphia college.

"E. B. Gleason, son of Dr. Gleason, is now business manager of the Sanitarium in this city."

Mr. Gleason was actively engaged in business affairs, and was for some time Cashier of the Exchange Bank of Hartford. Later he was senior partner of the firm of Gleason & Willard, flour manufacturers. During the Civil War he was manager of the N. Arms Co., and, for a time, was treasurer of the Middletown Savings Bank. He was a member of the Governor's Foot Guard and Putnam's Phalanx.

Although a busy man, he found time for religious duties and intellectual pursuits. He was deacon of the Asylum Hill Congregational Church of Hartford, and of the First Church of Christ in Middletown, and a teacher in the Sunday School. He accumulated a library of over 12,000 volumes, and read several languages fluently.

Frederick Grant Gleason, the eldest son, was a composer and teacher of music; was graduated from Leipsig Conservatory in 1869; served as organist of Asylum Hill Congregational Church of Hartford, Conn., and of the First Congregational Church of New Britain, Conn.; was musical editor of the Chicago Tribune; managing editor of Music Review, and director of the theoretical department of the Chicago Conservatory. He was Hon. Vice-President of the N.Y. Manuscript Society; President of American Patriotic Musical League; Director, Examiner and Fellow of American College of Musicians. He received a gold medal from the Association die Benemeriti Italiana. Among his compositions are the operas "Otho Visconti," "Montezuma," "The Culprit Fay," and "Edris."

Anson Gleason, the father, in his youth was set to learn the trade of carpenter and ship builder, and at the age of 19 he made a model for a vessel.

Early in life he united with the Congregational Church, and soon became deeply interested in the mission work. The American Board of Missions appointed him as one of the original band of missionary teachers to the Indians of the southwest, his work to be among the Choctaw Indians on the northern coast of the Gulf of Mexico. In January, 1823, he set out alone, on horseback from Hartford for this field of labor. The journey required three months.

With the aid of the Indian boys, he set about building a log cabin, felling the trees with a small axe which he had brought with him on his long horseback journey. For two years he lived alone in his cabin, 90 miles from any other white man. Though ignorant of the Choctaw language, he opened a school for the Indian children, and while he taught them English he learned Choctaw from them. His few books had been sent by a sailing vessel to Mobile, which was then only a small port, but it was months after his arrival before they reached him.

As an instance of his patience, resourcefulness and ingenuity, it is related that during this time he made a book by cutting letters and words from an old newspaper with his jack-knife, and pasting them into a pass book which he had carried in his pocket.

In 1826 he went back to Connecticut and was married in Manchester on Oct. 26, and shortly afterward, accompanied by his wife, he returned to his Choctaw Mission. Here their first two children were born.

It was not unusual for Mr. and Mrs. Gleason to make excursions of two and three hundred miles to visit distant Indians. These journeys were always made on horseback, Mr. Gleason on one horse, carrying the food and camping utensils, and his wife on another horse, with the two little children in her lap. At night they slept on the ground, building a fire to frighten away the wolves.

About 1830, he gave up his work among the Choctaws and returned to Connecticut and was employed as missionary to the Mohegan Indians in New London County, Conn., Congress having, by a special act, made an appropriation of $500 for the purpose of building a house and school house for him, and of $400 annually for his salary.

While engaged in work among the Mohegans, Mr. Gleason completed his theological studies, and about 1835 was ordained to the ministry of the Congregational Church. For 16 years he labored among the Mohegans. In 1846, owing to the breaking out of the Mexican War, various retrenchment measures were adopted by the government, and his salary was discontinued.

He was then employed for a time, as collecting agent for the American Board of Missions, and in 1858, was sent as missionary to the "Six Nations" in the Cataraugus Reservation, on the shores of Lake Erie. Here he remained until 1861, having spent in all, nearly 40 years in Indian Mission work.

He then engaged in City Mission work, first in Rochester, then in Utica, and in 1864 in Brooklyn, where he remained until his death, which occurred in 1885.

He was a prominent character in mission work, and was known to every one as "Father Gleason." He and his wife are buried in the old Yantic Cemetery at Norwich, Conn.

In 1860, Mr. and Mrs. Gleason removed from Illinois to Kirksville, Mo. In January, 1862, Mr. Gleason enlisted in the State Militia as drummer and was later elected 2nd Lieutenant of the Company. The following winter he enlisted in the Provincial Militia, and was appointed to serve as Adjutant and Drill Master. The company was disbanded, and in March, 1864, he again enlisted in the 12th Mo. Vol. Cav., and was in active service until the close of the war, and was commissioned 1st Lieutenant of Co. F., 12th Regt.

During the Civil War, there were troublous times even in northern Missouri, and long afterward Mrs. Gleason would relate how, when her house was searched by Confederate soldiers, she saved a large Union flag by concealing it under her hoop-skirt.

Mr. Gleason was with Gen. Connor on his expedition to the northwest, this command being the first white men to enter the Black Hills. They numbered 5000 men and started on June 6, 1865.

The notes prepared by Mr. Albert H. Gleason of Chicago, contain the following account of this expedition :

"The command divided on the march with 60 days rations, and were to meet at Fort Laramie, Wyo. George Gleason served under Col. Brown, former Lieut.-Col. of the 12th Mo. Gen. Connor finally succeeded in reaching Ft. Laramie, but on the march early in September they lost 500 head of cattle and mules, dying from exposure to sleet, snow and rain. George's part of the expedition got lost, wandering all through the Black Hills, meeting plenty of Indians, and quite a number of men were shot. At one time George's horse was shot from under him. They were 18 days without rations, and nearly starved, the Indians following around on all sides, and when one of the mules or horses died of exhaustion, the men fought like wolves to get a share of the carcass, so great was their hunger. Gen. Connor sent an expedition after them, and they arrived at Laramie, Sept. 18th, where they remained until rested up, then went to Cottonwood Springs, Denver, and afterwards to Julesburg. They marched to Ft. Kearney in the middle of the winter, and suffered great hardships from the extreme cold. The camp in the morning looked like a graveyard, the men all sleeping out of doors, and covered with snow. George was mustered out at Ft. Leavenworth, Apr. 16, 1866."

At the close of the war Mr. Gleason removed to St. Joseph, Mich., and later to Beloit, Wis., where he was employed in the James Gray Planing Mill, and later as Superintendent of the Frank Davis Paper Barrel Factory. He had a thorough knowledge of machinery, and invented several appliances, among which was an automatic can sealer, by the use of which three men could fill and solder 10,000 cans per day.

He was a prominent member and official of the Good Templars and also of the Sons of Temperance.

"Edward Baldwin Gleason, physician, b. in Philadelphia, Oct. 13, 1854, son of Dr. Cloyes W. Gleason and of Margaret (Baldwin) Gleason, daughter of Dr. William Baldwin, U. S. N. The Gleason family are descended from Thomas Gleason, who emigrated to Massachusetts about 1636, and took the oath of fidelity in Watertown, Mass., in 1654; two members of the family, Rebecca (Towne) Nurse, and Mary Estey, were executed during the "witch excitement" in Salem in 1692, and their sister, after some month's imprisonment, escaped to Framingham, Mass. Three of the family were officers in Capt. Nixon's Company of "Minute Men at the Battle of Bunker Hill.

Dr. Gleason prepared for College in the private schools of Philadelphia; was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, Scientific Department as B. S., in 1875, and the Medical Department as M. D., in 1878. Also received the degree of M. D. from the Medical-Chirurgical College in 1902, and the honorary degree of L.L.D. from Villanova College in 1905. He married, in 1887, Marian H. Currie, of Ashaway, R. I., and has one daughter, Helen B. Dr. Gleason was elected Clinical Professor of Otology in the Medico-Chirurgical College in 1895, and Professor in 1908. He is the author of two small books, one on diseases of the nose and throat, and the other on diseases of the ear and a Manual of diseases of the nose, throat and ear. He has served as laryngologist and aurist to the Philadelphia Hospital, the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital and the Northern Dispensary; is a fellow of the American Academy of Medicine and College of Physicians of Philadelphia and other medical and scientific societies; is an associate of the Pennsylvania Society Order of Founders and Patriots of America, and one of the directors of the Aldine Trust Co., Philadelphia. He is a Republican in politics and has represented his ward in the Philadelphia Common Council for three terms when he was appointed Chairman of the committee on Health and Charities and a member of the finance committee. ## SAMUEL O. GLEASON

"His great-grandfather was in the French and Indian War, and served with the English forces.

"Both his great-grandfather, and grandfather served in the Revolutionary War, enlisting in a Massachusetts Company, and Regiment, from the town of Spencer, Mass. They bore an honorable part in that eventful struggle for Independence.

"Samuel O. received a common school education, and came to Troy, in 1850, where he clerked in the drug store of Wallace & Knickerbocker until Jan. 1, 1856, when he purchased a drug store at 314 River street, where his store was burned in the big fire of 1862. He rebuilt, and resumed business ; he subsequently sold out to C. H. Bosworth, in 1882. In Sept., 1882, he was elected cashier of the Manufacturers' National Bank of Troy, which office he has held since. He was elected treasurer of the Fire Department in 1855, holding the office five years. In 1863, he was candidate for County Treasurer, but was defeated by Roger A. Flood. He was appointed County Treasurer in Mch 1864, to fill the vacancy made by the death of Mr. Flood, and was nominated by the Democratic party for the same office in the fall of 1864, and was elected; re-elected in 1867, and again in 1870, holding the office for nearly ten years. In 1870 there was no opponent to run against him, it being the only occurrence of the kind in the county. He was appointed Fire commissioner in 1878, and resigned after a year. He is also a member of the Board of Water Commissioners, being appointed Feb., 1887, and has been President of the Board since 1888. Mr. Gleason is one of the commissioners of the funded debts of the City of Troy, and a trustee in the Troy Gas Co. On Apr. 1, 1893, he was called to the treasurership of the Walter A. Wood Mowing & Reaping Machine Co., and served in that capacity until the company dissolved in 1895. Mr. Gleason is a life member of the Mount Zion Lodge, A. F. & A. M. In politics he has always been a strong and influential Democrat, representing this congressional district on the State Democratic Committee five years, from 1875; and was also chairman of the Democratic County Committee about the same time. He was one of the strong and influential supporters of Mr. Tilden for Governor in 1874, and for President in 1876. As a careful and conservative business man, and financier, Mr. Gleason has made a most honorable and enviable record."

The following sketch is taken from a Boston paper :

Daniel Angell Gleason, Treasurer of the Fitchburg Division of the Boston & Maine, President of the Medford Savings Bank, and former State Treasurer, died yesterday at his home, 375 High Street, Medford, after a long illness. He was 72 years old, and was one of the leading Republicans of the state.

Mr. Gleason was b. in Worcester, May 9, 1836. He was educated in the public schools of that city and at Harvard, where he was graduated in 1860. He later entered the law school of that institution, and received a degree of L.L.B.

He was admitted to the Suffolk bar in 1861, and began the practice of law in Boston. He was law clerk to Attorney General Dwight Foster from 1862 to 1864. In 1863 he married Miss Annie L. Hall in Roxbury.

Mr. Gleason early took an important part in the politics of Medford. He served on the school board from 1864 to 1885. He was largely instrumental in the introduction of water into the town, and served many years on the Board of Water Commissioners.

The chief event in Mr. Gleason's political career was his election in 1881 to the office of Treasurer and Receiver-General of the state.

Following his election as State Treasurer, he was appointed in 1887 to the office of Treasurer of the Fitchburg Railroad, now a part of the Boston & Maine system, which position he held until his death.

Mr. Gleason was one of the first Trustees of the Medford Savings Bank, and at the time of his death was the bank's President.

For the last few years of his life Mr. Gleason took no active part in public affairs.

Mr. White received his early education in the public schools near his home in Chautauqua County, N.Y., and later attended the Jamestown Academy.

For three years he taught school in the winter and worked on the farm in the summer. But he had a natural and perhaps inherited inclination toward the lumber business, and from 1868 to 1879 he was engaged in various small lumbering enterprises in Warren and Clarion Counties, Pa. During this period he also made one venture in the newspaper business. In 1874-5, while operating what was known as the Arcade Mill in Tidioute, Pa., he was one of the founders of the "Tidioute News," an independent weekly paper, of which Mr. White later became proprietor and edited the paper in addition to managing his lumber business.

In 1878 he was elected to the State Legislature of Pa., and at the expiration of his term of office, two years later, associated with Messrs. E. B. and J. L. Grandin, Capt. H. H. Cumings, and J. L. and L. L. Hunter, all of Tidioute, Pa., he went to Missouri and was one of the organizers of the Missouri Lumber & Mining Co., which was one of the pioneer companies in the development of the Yellow Pine lumber industry. Mr. White is President of this company; also President of the La. Central Lumber Co., which has its mills and headquarters at Clarks, La.; Secretary of the La. Long Leaf Lumber Co., at Fisher, La.; also President of the Forest Lumber Co., which is engaged in the retail lumber business, with headquarters in Kansas City, Mo.; also a Director of the New England National Bank of Kansas City, Mo. The sales offices of Mr. White's various lumber companies are in the R. A. Long Building, Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. White has taken great interest in historical and genealogical research, and has collected a valuable library along these lines, and has assisted, financially and otherwise, in the publication of an extended history of the descendants of John White of Wenham and Lancaster, Mass., which was compiled by Miss Almira L. White of Haverhill, Mass.

He is a prominent member of the Missouri "Sons of the Revolution" and of the "Society of Colonial Wars," and his business interests have not prevented him from taking an active interest in educational, religious and benevolent affairs.

Mr. White was also appointed member of the National Conservation Commission which met in Washington, D. C. early in the year 1909, and in August of the same year was appointed by Gov. Hadley of Mo., member of first National Congress which met in Seattle.

Mrs. White is descended on her mother's side from John Walker of Wigton, Scotland, who was born, prob. about 1680, the line of descent being as follows :—

JOHN WALKER,<sup>2</sup> m. 1702, Katherine Rutherford. They emigrated to America.

ALEXANDER WALKER,<sup>3</sup> m. Jane Hammer (or Hummer).

JAMES WALKER,<sup>4</sup> m. Margaret Gray.

ALEXANDER WALKER,<sup>5</sup> m. Elizabeth Scott.

SAMUEL SCOTT WALKER,<sup>6</sup> m. Sarah Ann Allen.

ELIZABETH IRMA WALKER,<sup>7</sup> m. Benjamin B. Siggins.

EMMA SIGGINS,<sup>8</sup> m. (2nd wife) John Barber White.

Katherine Rutherford, wife of John Walker, the Emigrant, was a descendant of the Rutherford and Alleine families to which belonged the celebrated divines, Samuel Rutherford and Joseph Alleine. John Walker and his wife Katherine settled in Chester Co., Pa., but their son Alexander and other members of the family removed to Rockbridge Co., Virginia, and among their descendants are many of the prominent families of Virginia and Kentucky.

Mrs. White's great-grandmother, Elizabeth Scott, was the daughter of Samuel Scott, who was a Revolutionary Soldier, enlisted at the age of 14 in the Washington County, Virginia militia, and participated in the Battle of King's Mountain.

Mrs. White has prepared and published (1902) a genealogical history of the descendants of John Walker of Wigton.

Mr. and Mrs. White and family are members of the Congregational Church.

4766. III. EMMA RUTH WHITE, b. Youngsville, Penn., Oct. 30, 1884; was graduated from Wellesley College in 1907.
4767. IV. JAY BARBER WHITE, b. Oct. 2, 1886; d. Aug. 2, 1887.
4768. V. RAYMOND BAIRD WHITE, b. Grandin, Carter County, Mo., Mch. 18, 1889; was graduated from the Kansas City High School in June, 1909, and in September of the same year he entered the University of Wisconsin, at Madison.

Dr. John Franklin White, eldest son of the above family, was graduated from the Kansas City High School in the class of 1894. In the fall of 1895, he entered the University Medical College of Kansas City, where he did two years of excellent work, after which he entered the Missouri Medical College in St. Louis, Mo., (now Medical Dept. of Washington University) from which he was graduated in 1898. The following summer he spent in Philadelphia making a special study of the eye. That winter he began the practice of medicine on the hospital staff of the Missouri Lumber & Mining Company, in Grandin, Missouri. In the fall of 1899, he passed with honors the State examinations of Louisiana and began to practice in Fisher in Sabine Parish. Here he was appointed local surgeon for the Kansas City Southern Railroad, and here occurred the accident which caused his death on June 11th, 1900. His father has erected to his memory a finely equipped High School Building in Youngsville, Penn. In the building is a memorial window, the design being an arch supported by four columns, "Honesty, Purity, Courage, Love," a design peculiarly appropriate for a memorial to such a life and character as were Dr. White's. Of him it was justly said:—

"As child, boy, man and physician, Dr. White was loved and respected by all who knew him. His character was moulded by deeds of purity, honesty, courage and love. He was a man of unusual ability, with determination that insured success. His motives for action were based on the highest conceptions of the Golden Rule—a conception which developed in him an unswerving loyalty to every cause which he considered just and right, an exquisite tenderness to all weak or suffering humanity, and an unselfishness which completely forgot self in serving others."

- 4940. IX. ETHEL HOLLAND, b. Jan. 3, 1886.

Joseph Meade Gleason was born in Austerlitz, N. Y., and received his education in the schools of that town. At the age of 16 he went to Louisville, Ky., and for a short time was employed as a clerk in a drug store, but later secured a position with James E. Tyler & Co., Insurance Agents. In 1867 he became Secretary of the Louisville Insurance and Banking Co., which position he occupied for five years.

In 1872 he opened an Insurance Agency which he conducted until 1886, when he disposed of his interests and accepted the position of Special Agent for the Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection & Insurance Co., with headquarters in Cincinnati, whither he removed and where he spent the remainder of his life.

Mr. Gleason was a member of the "Old Northwest Genealogical Society," and spent his leisure in genealogical research. The records of the Gleason Family collected by him, formed, in part, the basis for this "Genealogy of the Descendants of Thomas Gleason."

The following tribute has been paid to his memory :

"Mr. Gleason was a Republican in politics, but had never held nor sought any office. During the Civil War he served as a volunteer in Louisville at the time General Buckner threatened that city, and he was regularly mustered in the United States Army in the organization known as the National Home Guard, of Louisville. A very notable thing about this particular military body was, that it received compensation from the United States Government for services rendered, and then had the patriotism to turn the entire sum so received back into the United States Treasury.

"Mr. Gleason was a man of high character, and was an excellent business man, just and firm in all his dealings. He possessed a spirit of broad charity, which endeared him to all who knew him. He was an earnest and consistent member of the Baptist Church."

Mary H. (Miles) Gleason, wife of Joseph Mead Gleason, is a descendant of William Hyde, the Emigrant, the line of descent, as compiled from the Hyde Genealogy, being as follows :

WILLIAM HYDE, Emigrant, of Norwich, Conn.

SAMUEL HYDE, of Hartford, Conn., b. 1637 ; m. Jane Lee of Lyne, Conn.

JOHN HYDE, of Norwich, Conn., b. Dec. 1667 ; m. Experience Abel of Norwich, Conn., b. Dec. 1674.

JOHN HYDE, of Norwich, Conn., b. Dec. 5, 1698 ; m. Sarah Hoskins of Taunton, Mass.

ASA HYDE, of Norwich, Conn., b. July 21, 1741 ; m. Lucy French of Norwich, Conn., b. Aug. 9, 1741.

JOHN HYDE, of Norwich, Conn., b. Sept. 5, 1768 ; m. Rhoda Hyde of Lebanon, Conn., b. Mch. 23, 1770.

MARY CLARK HYDE, of Lisbon, Conn., b. Sept. 3, 1800 ; m. Nathaniel Hardy of Louisville, Ky., b. May 24, 1795.

CAROLINE MATILDA HARDY, of Louisville, Ky., b. Mar. 22, 1822 ; m. Amos Duffield Miles of Bucks County, Pa., b. Sept. 8, 1816.

MARY HOWARD MILES, of Louisville, Ky., b. Jan. 20, 1846 ; m. Joseph Mead Gleason of Austerlitz, N. Y., b. Sept. 15, 1843.

The following sketch also appears in the Hyde Genealogy :

"The name of William Hyde first appears at Hartford, Conn., in 1636, and his name is on the monument in the old cemetery at that place as one of the original settlers ; and he had lands assigned to him there.

"Many families of the name of Hyde have been settled in different parts of England for five or six hundred years prior to the settlement of New England. One of the name, Sir Nicholas Hyde, was Chief Justice of the court of King's Bench in 1626; another, Sir Robert Hyde, was Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas in 1660, and a third, Sir Edward Hyde, afterwards the Earl of Clarendon, was Lord Chancellor of the restoration in 1660, and was the grandfather of Queen Mary the 2nd, and Queen Ann, and of Edward Hyde, Lord Cornbury, who was one of the provincial governors of New York.

"William Hyde of Norwich was a contemporary of Sir Robert Hyde and of the Earl of Clarendon, but was undoubtedly of humbler origin. I have not been able to ascertain from what part of England he came, to what family he belonged, or where he first landed in this country, or the precise time he arrived here. He probably came over in 1663 with the Reverend Thomas Hooker, the first minister of Hartford; sojourned a short time in Newton, Mass., and removed with him to Hartford in 1636. No information has been obtained as to the name of his wife, or when or where she died. From the age of the son when he died (40) he must have been born in 1636.

"William Hyde was a man of considerable importance among the settlers of Norwich, and was frequently elected as one of the townsmen or selectmen. He d. at Norwich, Jan. 6, 1681. His home lot was devised to his grandson, William Hyde, and a part of it was owned by William Mansfield, a descendant of the latter, and was occupied by him as the site of his dwelling house in 1859."

In his early life Mr. Gleason taught school for a time. He was also salesman of nursery stock, and later became one of the proprietors of the Tonawanda (N. Y.) Nursery Co.

When Mr. Gleason first removed to North Dakota he lived in a sparsely settled part of the country. A large proportion of the residents were foreign born, and the hardships and privations incident to life in a new country were increased for these people, by the fact that, owing to their ignorance of American customs and laws, they were largely at the mercy of dishonest speculators, particularly in the marketing of their wheat and other products.

Mr. Gleason soon became a power in protecting the settlers against this injustice. He also labored for high standards of patriotism and citizenship, and was a leader in the establishment of schools and churches. In order to do this it was necessary to mingle constantly with these people in their daily life; to plan social gatherings whose real object was the education of the people; to arrange for the celebration of national holidays, the object of which was to instil in these people of alien birth, a loyalty to their new land, and to its flag.

In all this work Mr. Gleason and his wife were untiring in their efforts. To soldiers of peace, such as they, the country owes a debt of gratitude which will never be computed by human reckoning.

Mr. Gleason was for some time member of the House of Representatives of the state, and was also head of the society known as "Young Men's Good Government."

EXPLANATIONS

The general arrangement of this volume, with a word of explanation, will be readily understood.

As will be observed the records are arranged according to generations, the Emigrant Ancestor being the first generation, and he is No. 1 in the genealogy. His children are the second generation and are numbered 2, 3, 4, etc., all descendants being numbered consecutively in this way. Those whose records are extended into the succeeding generation are designated by the character + placed before the number and name. After the manuscript had been completely numbered and indexed, it was found, in a few instances, that there were errors in the records as reported. The making of these corrections necessitated the omission of a few numbers in some places, (e.g. see page 374).

The accompanying index is supposed to contain the name of every person mentioned in this volume. The figures opposite the names refer to the side numbers in the genealogy, not to pages.

The names of persons, not descendants, are indexed to the numbers in whose records they occur.

Also, wherever the names of Gleason descendants occur elsewhere than under their own numbers, they are indexed to the numbers where they will be found. In other words, every name is indexed to the number or numbers under which it occurs, whether it be its own or some other number.

A small superior figure used with a name, designates the generation to which the person belongs.

Appendix "A," "Descendants of Daniel Gleason," is indexed by pages not by numbers.

Appendix "B" is not indexed, as the names are in alphabetical order.

Attention is called to "Additions and Corrections to Index," page cxvii. and to "Errata" on pages 671 and 672, following index.
